PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This charming late 40's cottage style home is in walking distance to the Claremont Colleges and the Village. It is very clean and features a cozy fireplace, refinished wood floors in two of the bedrooms, stone tile, wood window coverings, double paned windows throughout the house, recessed lighting and crown molding in the family room, large private backyard, large bonus room attached to the garage, refurbished bath and shower, new stove and is located near the historic "Russian Village." It is a beautiful home with great character in the highly respected Claremont Unified School District. Claremont also ranks 5th in Money Magazine's national "Best Places to Live." This is not a reo or short sale. It is a regular sale
